Saxe Co-Suspect Convicted in Albany

One of the men indicted with Susan Saxe of Albany on charges of robbing a Boston Bank and killing a police officer has been convicted of an August 1970, bank robbery in Evanston, Ill.

During the trial of Stanley R. Bond, 26, testimony linked Susan Saxe with the plotting of the Evanston holdup of the Prudential Savings & Loan Association on Aug. 18. Bond was convicted of the $3,000 robbery in federal court in Chicago yesterday.

AN ACCOMPLICE, Robert J. Valeri, 22, of Somerville, Mass., pleaded guilty to the robbery in June.

The gang, which the FBI and police called "a band of urban guerrillas," is also suspected in what police call the "Molokov Cocktail Caper," because Susan Saxe allegedly held a gasoline bomb during the holdup of the Bell Savings & Loan Association in Philadelphia on Sept. 1.

On Sept. 14 of the same year, two Wilshire Boulevard banks in Los Angeles were robbed and police said they were investigating a connection with the other robberies. The criminals got $3,400 at one bank and $1,370 at the other.

EVANSTON, ILL.
ON SEPT. 20, the Newburyport Armory in Massachusetts was broken into, weapons and secret documents stolen, and an attempt was made to firebomb the military facility. Items from the armory were found in the Boston apartment of Katherine Power, 21, of Denver.

Susan Saxe and Katherine Power are the only two members of the gang still at large. Both are on the FBI's 10 Most Wanted list.

Also being probed by authorities is the possibility that the gang planned but was unable to carry out robberies at New York and San Francisco banks.

BOND, A Vietnam veteran who had served a prison sentence in Massachusetts for several robberies, told the court he attended Brandeis University in Waltham, Mass., on a federal scholarship after his release from prison.

Testimony said he became involved with political revolutionaries while attending the school and that he, Valeri and Susan Saxe plotted the Evanston robbery.

Bond, when arrested in Colorado, announced he was a combat committee leader for Revolutionary Action Force-East.

PURPOSE: To advise that trial of Stanley Ray Bond, which commenced U. S. District Court (USDC), Chicago, 6/14/71, was declared a mistrial due to improper questioning of subject Valeri by Assistant U. S. Attorney (AUSA) and new trial began 6/15/71. On 6/15/71, U. S. District Judge (USDJ), Chicago, granted defense counsel's motion for venue change and new trial scheduled for 7/8/71 before USDJ, Danville, Illinois. Venue changed on grounds of prejudicial newspaper publicity.

BACKGROUND: On 8/18/70, Bond and Valeri, armed with a sawed-off shotgun and revolver, robbed captioned association and obtained over $8,000 in loot. Investigation determined that Bond and Valeri were members of a gang, consisting of three males and two females which robbed a Boston bank on 9/23/70 of over $26,000 and brutally murdered a police officer.

[REDACTED]

All three male subjects have been arrested and the two females, Susan E. Saxe and Katherine Ann Power, are currently being sought as two of the FBI's Ten Most Wanted Fugitives.

Rosen to Sullivan Memorandum
RE: STANLEY RAY BOND

Judge excused Bond from the courtroom and allowed trial to proceed without Bond being present. During trial on 6/14/71, AUSA questioned Valeri concerning where he first met Bond. Valeri testified he first met Bond in prison and the defense immediately moved for a mistrial which was so ordered by the court. The USDC Judge scheduled new trial which began 6/15/71.

On 6/15/71 defense counsel from Boston moved for either continuance or transfer of venue on grounds of prejudicial newspaper publicity, each Chicago paper having run minor story concerning mistrial on 6/14/71. Out of a twenty jury panel assembled, twelve said they had read story of the mistrial. On this basis, USDJ, Chicago, granted motion for venue change and scheduled new trial for 7/8/71 before USDJ, Danville, Illinois. The U. S. Attorney (USA), Chicago, has stated that due to witnesses and various counsel having conflicting dates in other matters for 7/8/71 trial he would recontact USDJ, Danville, and request trial be changed from 7/8/71 to first jury term in September, 1971. The Department has been kept abreast of this matter.

On 5/21/71 USDC, Boston also declared mistrial due to adverse publicity in news media regarding Bond's misconduct in courtroom. Bond was being tried for his participation in burglary of National Guard Armory, Newburyport, Massachusetts, on 9/20-21/70.

STATUS OF PROSECUTION

A Federal grand jury at Chicago, Illinois, on January 5, 1971 returned a true bill of indictment, number 71 CR 2, charging STANLEY RAY BOND and ROBERT JOSEPH VALERI with the armed robbery of $8,086.00 from the Prudential Savings and Loan Association, Evanston, Illinois, on August 18, 1970 in violation of Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 2113(a) and (d). The case was assigned to District Judge ABRAHAM LINCOLN MAROVITZ for trial. Bond was fixed at $200,000 each by Chief Judge EDWIN A. ROBSON. Bench warrants were issued and lodged as detainers by U.S. Marshal, Boston, Massachusetts.

BOND was returned to Chicago under a writ of habeas corpus ad prosequendum and was arraigned on the indictment on May 13, 1971. He stood mute in court and a Federal defender attorney, LEVINSON, entered a plea of not guilty. Judge MAROVITZ continued the case for motions and to set trial on June 11, 1971.

 Mr. LEE further advised that BOND has repeatedly stated he will make every effort to disrupt any trial in any way possible. Mr. SPRAGUE advised he had informed Judge MAROVITZ.
